

4. The Funds will hold meetings of shareholders to vote on approval of the New Agreement on or before the 120th day following the termination of the Existing Agreement (but in no event later than May 20, 1996).

5. The Adviser or Fourth Financial will bear the costs of preparing and filing this application and the costs relating to the solicitation of Fund shareholder approval necessitated by the Merger.

6. The Adviser will take all appropriate steps so that the scope and quality of advisory and other services provided to the Funds during the Interim Period will be at least equivalent, in the judgment of the board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, to the scope and quality of services previously provided. If personnel providing material services during the Interim Period change materially, the Adviser will apprise and consult with the board to assure that they, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, are satisfied that the services provided will not be diminished in scope or quality.

For the SEC, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.
Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.
